DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the upper oven heater located in an upper part of an inside wall of the oven compartment must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 1761

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2-7 and 11-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 2 and 11, it is not clear what the difference between the upper and lower door heaters recited therein and the upper and lower oven heaters recited in claims 1 and 10. The heaters are each recited as being located in an upper or lower part of the inside wall of the oven compartment.

In claim 15, there is no antecedent basis for the upper and lower door heaters.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1, 10, 17 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Maruyama et al. in view of JP 1-146493.

There is disclosed in Maruyama a bread maker for performing a plurality of bread making processes in an oven compartment, comprising: a heater 9; a heater driving part 20 supplying power to the heater; a temperature sensor 10 detecting a temperature of the oven compartment during each of the bread making processes; a process condition storing part (memory) storing process condition data including processing times and temperatures for each bread making process; and a controller 15 for controlling the heater driving part to maintain the temperature of the oven compartment.

JP 1-146493 discloses that it is known in the art to provide multiple heaters within a bread making compartment, the upper and lower heater 3, 4 being located in an upper and lower part of inside walls of the compartment, wherein the upper and lower heaters are individually controlled.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the compartment of Maruyama with an additional heater as taught in JP 1-146493, in order to enhance the heating efficiency of the compartment.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 18 and 19 are allowed.

Claims 2-7 and 11-16 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
